

Open to the world?

Make it official and stand out from the crowd!

The uOGlobal recognition is a way to build your global skills through:

- workshops
- CO-OP placements
- volunteering
- national and international exchanges
- language courses and more

Your benefits:

- Set yourself apart in the eyes of employers
- Develop your ability to reflect on and find new, creative answers to real issues worldwide
- Live in varied cultural settings and be in contact with people of other cultures
- Have the recognition appear on your official transcripts validating your intercultural experiences and your achievements
- Invitation to exclusive events and a VIP career fair
